DRUM CORPS' PICNIC AT OAK GROVE BIG SUCCESS

A large crowd assembled 'neath the grateful shade of the majestic trees, which have made Oak Grove so popular and an ideal retreat, to participate in the round of festivities arranged for the second annual picnic given by the Sonoma Drum Corps, last Sunday.

Sargeant Fred Hansen and his drummer boys are deserving of the greatest credit for the able manner in which the event was conducted, and the success with which the vast number assembled were entertained. Not a dull moment marred the enjoyment of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koerner have been paid many compliments on the courtesies and hospitality extended, contributing in every possible way to the general success of the picnic, and permitting no hoodlumism.

Dancing was enjoyed during the afternoon in the spacious dance hall, the Sonoma Valley Band "doing itself proud" with the excellence of the music provided for the indulgence of the favorite pastime. Popular Al Warriner acted as floor manager.

The big feature of the afternoon was the foot-races, which created no end of sport for young and old of both sexes. The races were hotly contested, with the following results—the prizes given and the winners thereof:

First—Boys under sixteen: knife, won by Harold Stockwell.

Second — Young men: baseball glove, won by Jack Canavari.

Third—Little girls: doll, won by Loraine Banchero.

Fourth—Married ladies: box of stationery, won by Mrs. Jos. Groskopf.

Fifth—Men: razor strap, won by Wm. Russell.

Sixth—Young ladies: hair brush, won by Marie Helberg.

Seventh—Little boys: knife, won by Charlie Price.

On the conclusion of the races, the gate prizes were drawn, the winning numbers being as follows: Five dollars cash, ticket number 106; $2.50 cash, ticket number 162; $1.00 cash, ticket number 463.

The snug sum of $85.00 was realized, which will reimburse to a considerable extent the treasury of the Drum Corps.

This organization, by the way, wish to extend thanks to all the friends, who helped by their presence and encourgement to make the undertaking a success.

Especial thanks are given Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koerner for many courtesies extended.

DESTROYED BY FIRE

The residence of Thos. Monahan, located on First Street East, and occupied by Mrs. H. Hess, was destroyed by fire, Tuesday morning, while Mrs. Hess was down town shopping. The origin of the conflagration is not known, although there is every reason to believe that it resulted from defective electrical wires, as the fire started upstairs, at the point where the meter was located, and which had been out of order. The house was valued at $2,000, and insured for one-half that amount. Mrs. Hess, who is a resident of San Francisco, has been spending the summer with her little son in this city. She lost a valuable set of furs, forty-five dollars in currency, and other articles. The furniture, with the exception of that in one room, was saved. Mr. Monahan, with characteristic enterprise, will rebuild, so he informs us—a handsome, up-to-date bungalow. The many friends made by Mrs. Hess, during her months of sojourn here, regret her loss and unfortunate experience.

Mrs. Hess wishes the Index-Tribune to correct the report that the fire resulted from an electric iron, as she has not had one in her possession during her residence in Sonoma. The lady avers, and her statements are corroborated, that the fire started on the upper floor, and that both the wood and electric stoves were unheated at the time of the conflagration. The iron carried out of the house was of the detachable handle style, to be heated on coal or wood stove.

TO THE PEOPLE OF SONOMA VALLEY:-

At this moment the minds of all men are filled with the awfulness of the war now raging in Europe.

It is not a time to think of any affiliations of race or creed, Saxon, Celt and Slav are warring against Teuton - yet this ought mean nothing to us here in Sonoma. But, that Men are slaughtering Men - this must mean much

One thought alone moves every man, woman and child - PEACE.

The President of the United States has set apart Sunday, October 4th., as a day on which to hold meetings in the interest of Peace.

The Board of Trustees of Sonoma City urgently request and desire the presence of every person in Sonoma Valley to take part in the exercises to be held on Sunday evening, October 4th., at 8 P. M. in Union Hall.

PEACE DAY SERVICE SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4

In accordance with the Proclamation issued by the President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, a Peace Day Service has been arranged for tomorrow (Sunday) evening, October 4th, at Union Hall, at eight o'clock.

The chief idea of this Service is to instill into all people—youth and age—the thought of Peace, so that the United States will never be drawn into War. Then, too, as is understood by the public, money is sadly needed in the European countries, ravaged and made desolate by the horrors of War, and it is desired that a large offering will be given, so that Sonoma's contribution will rank well with the other offerings to the Red Cross Society's funds. The Sunday morning offering at Trinity Episcopal Church will form a part of Sonoma's contribution to the Red Cross fund, and the other churches will undoubtedly add to the amounts otherwise raised.

The following program has been arranged for the occasion:

Opening Remarks by the Chairman of the Committee—Wm. Von Hacht
Hymn—"O God, Our Help in Ages Past"
Invocation and Prayer—Rev. H. Waltz
Hymn—"O God of Love, O God of Peace"
Address—Rev. T. M. Price
Hymn—"Hail to the Lord's Annointed!"
Offering for the Red Cross Society
Solo, Kipling's "Recessional"—A. H. Jansen
Benediction—Rev. J. H. Oelhoff

Every endeavor has been made by Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church—to whom, as a matter of fact, belongs the credit for the inauguration of the Peace movement in Sonoma—President Wm. Von Hacht (whose message to the public appears upon the first page of the Index-Tribune), and the other members of the Board of Trustees to interest the public in and urge a large attendance at the Service. The use of Union Hall has been given by Frank Koenig, proprietor of the Union Hotel, and the Expositor and Index-Tribune provided the necessary printing.

VINEBURG

Fred Batto and N. J. Heggie transacted business in Petaluma, day.

Miss Pauline Burr, of San Francisco, is a guest at New Vineburg Inn this week.

Edward Bosquet, of San Francisco, was the guest of August Rouque, Sr., on Sunday.

Vineburg was well represented at the picnic of the Drum Corps at Oak Grove, Sunday last

Mr and Mrs. George Schultz and family, of San Francisco, spent the week end at New Vineburg Inn.

Edmund Bacher, of San Francisco, was the guest of Mr and Mrs. B. Schrempp, the first of the week.

On Friday of last week a straight carload of choice. French prunes was shipped from Batto's Spur, this being the second car sent out this season from this point.

Mrs. August Figone and children, accompanied by Miss Mary Batto, arrived from the metropolis, Tuesday evening, and are guests at the John Batto residence.

A. G. Eatherton, of Petaluma, traveling salesman for the Vonson Company's "Vestals Egg Food," was a visitor in this vicinity, on Friday last transacting business.

Louis Hishier, formerly proprietor of the Schellville Hotel, and well known in this vicinity, is a guest at New Vineburg Inn, visiting friends hereabouts for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke accompanied by friends, motored to the City of Roses and Sebastopol, Monday last, and returned the same day, much pleased with their trip.

Henry Gundlach, the well known and wide awake metropolitan manager of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Company, transacted business at Rhine Farm, the fore part of the week.

Emil McCurdy and his cousin Thomas Atkins, after spending a pleasant outing in this vicinity for a fortnight, returned to the metropolis, Saturday, well pleased with New Vineburg, and the manner in which they were entertained.

Frank Rhode, one of the progressive poultry men of the Hyde tract, is building a large incubator house at his yards, and expects to receive one hundred and fifty thoroughbred birds from the East, in a few days, to add to his large flocks.

Of course, Vineburg is growing—any one can see that without looking. Our local merchant, 'Dolph Rubke, has had two signs painted on his place of business, and in case he is asked how business is, he only smiles and replies, "Get on to the signs."

Marshal Forni reports that every thing is quiet in peaceful Vineburg. Only the Scotch Collie dogs have declared war on the French poodles. That's nothing; leave it to the marshal—he'll square the case without having to call on President Woodrow Wilson.

The vintage season is now on in this vicinity and the large cellars of Sam Sebastiani and Joe Soroni at Sonoma. The plants of Gundlach Bundschu Wine Company, and that of Carl Dresel Company—the "Gold Medal" wine cellar—are now running full capacity. These are the cellars that have made this part of the Sonoma Valley famous throughout the United States, and in fact the world.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke had the extreme pleasure of entertaining Supervisor and Mrs. Oscar Hocks, of San Francisco, and several other prominent Bay City officials, at New Vineburg Inn, last Sunday. After an elaborate luncheon, the day was spent in motoring to points of interest in the 'Valley of the Moon." All speak highly of the hospitality extended by their host and hostess, Mr. nnd Mrs. Lehrke, and of the charms of the Sonoma Valley.

Mrs. Frank McGill and sister, Mrs. Jake Schumacher, drove over to Petaluma, Saturday last.

Teams are busy hauling lumber for E. E. Bennett, who is erecting a fine house and barn on his ranch here.

Mrs. Howard Knight, one of our popular matrons, entertained Mrs. Walter Gaige, of Glen Ellen, recently.

A number of friends from Alameda motored up to the A. Hopke home, and are enjoying the week there.

Mrs. C. Biersworth, of San Francisco, was a guest at the E. Steddom ranch, from Sunday 'til Tuesday.

Mrs. John Gilfoyle, who is getting the best of care at the Broadway Sanitarium, is getting along nicely.

Blair Hart and John Lawlor of Petaluma, and Wm. Cummings of Santa Rosa, were among the many motorists who visited here the fore part of the week.

Jos. Keechler and family had a delightful motor trip to Petaluma, Saturday, and on Sunday, at their home at McGills, entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Riebli of the "egg city."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg enjoyed the picnic given by the Sonoma Valley Drum Corps, Sunday lost. Their two sons, Will and Fred, are members of the organization.

Mrs. Chas. Cutter had a pleasant visit from Mrs. Jas. Tate and little Jeanne, on Tuesday last, and on Wednesday Mrs. Erhard Steiger had the pleasure of a visit from the lady.

Mrs. Jas. Kehoe and daughter, Alice, of Sonoma, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Millerick, of this place, motored to Nicasia Saturday, to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Gallagher, of that place.

Mrs. Jas. Tate and little daughter, Jeanne, Misses Alice Young and Rena McDaniels motored to Petaluma, Saturday last, guests of Mrs. L. Rosser, who was at the wheel of her fine car. The party enjoyed the day immensely.

If you want to see two fine pigs, you want to take a hike down to our genial postmaster, Mont. Akers. To see such fine pigs will convince you that Mont is some farmer. They are just eight months old and weigh four hundred pounds each. Now, don't all speak at once, as Mont has already been offered a good deal of gold for Tom and Jerry, and what he intends to do is to convert these fat rascals into good, old Missouri bacon.

HAPPY JACK.

EL VERANO

Eugene Dutil was a visitor in El Verano, Sunday last.

Leon Meyer was a passenger to the metropolis, Sunday.

Mrs. Watts spent Sunday at her comfortable little cottage here.

George B Carpenter, of Baxterville, visited in El Verano, Monday

John Lounibos, of Petaluma, visited here, Sunday, with his father

Lawrence LaLanne, of San Francisco, spent Sunday at the French Cottage

John Basselne, our tonsorial artist, spent Sunday and Monday in the metropolis.

J. Kenny, of the Jack London ranch, at Glen Ellen, visited here last Sunday.

Mrs P. Rossi is here from Vallejo for a few days, from her hotel in the aforesaid city.

J. E. Dorward, of Alameda, is here visiting several days at his country home near town.

Mr. and Mrs Carl Schmitt, Mrs August Ready, and Miss Hegless are visitors at Oak Grove.

O. C. Benjamin had a number of photos taken of his popular place of business, the Hotel Bellevue.

Harry Rosmond and wife of the Orpheum Circuit, were visiting in El Verano, Wednesday and Thursday.

Thos. H. Baines was a visitor to the City of Roses as a delegate to the Democratic County Convention.

The many friends of Will Fowler are glad to see him around again at his old job, driving the bakery wagon.

Harry Becker, of San Francisco, has taken a position as chief mixologist at the popular Oak Grove Resort.

Mrs. Eugene Hunt, of Martinez, is spending a week or ten days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Weaver.

Harry Baines is doing a Land Office business taking long trips in his auto with a number of guests who are anxious to see our valley.

Albert Rossi has arrived home after an extensive tour around the State. He certainly had some smile when he landed. "El Verano for mine."

Archibald McIver was a visitor at Oak Grove, Sunday, after an absence of several months, and all were glad to shake hands with the once noted reporter of the Sonoma Index-Tribune.

Henry Ahlers, of Glen Ellen, drove down to our little burg the first part of the week. Although he had his arm broken two weeks ago, he has noteworthy grit to be driving his team and attending to his wood business.

C. Heglund, Carl Holm and Fred Johnson, prominent mining men from the cold regions of Alaska, are visitors at Oak Grove. The gentlemen, who are delighted with the climate and beauty of our valley, have some fine samples of the Preston's metal, which they found up there.

There is going to be another of those merry picnics at the Oak Grove, Sunday, Oct. 4th. There will be all kinds of sports as usual, but the best of these will be a grand turkey shoot, at which the many marksmen of our valley will be able to carry off a nice, fat bird. Everybody welcome. Music and dancing free.

Saturday night, October 3d, will take place the closing dance at the El Verano Villa for the season, to the regret of the young El Veranoites, all of whom will certainly be there in full force and do justice to the many good selections rendered by the Pebbles Orchestra, which has come to be looked upon as the finest band in the valley. Young people, as well as their elders, pay a great deal of credit to L. Lamotte, the able proprietor of this most popular resort for procuring such artists as Messrs F. Pebbles, J. Fitzgerald and S. Meyer. We sincerely hope to see their smiling faces again next season. There will be a good time, Saturday night. Don't forget the date.

ADALINE.

[An interesting letter received by Mrs. Henry Koerner from her sister, who is located in the war zone, will appear in next week's issue.—EDITOR]

Funeral of E. J. Smith

The funeral of the late E. J. Smith, who on Friday morning of last week was struck and killed by the freight train at the Vineburg crossing, was held from the family residence, Sunday last. The services were conducted by Rev. T. M. Price, of the Congregational Church, who touched feelingly upon the tragic ending of the worthy man's life, which was another sorrowful proof that, in truth, "In the midst of life we are in death." The remains were laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery, in which many sorrowing friends had assembled to pay a last tribute to the respected dead, and to console the bereaved widow, upon whom the hand of sorrow has been laid so heavily. The grave was covered with beautiful floral offerings. Besides his devoted wife, Mr. Smith leaves a brother in Pennsylvania to mourn his loss.

☛ Don't forget the big game of baseball, to be pulled off on the local diamond tomorrow afternoon. Read about it in "ad" on first page. Baseball fans are anticipating some rare sport as the line-up comprises players of skill and practice. The contest will be the most interesting of the season.

BONNER-GRANNICE NUPTIALS----- NOTABLE SOCIAL EVENTS

Our society editor is on the warpath, owing to the fact that the excessive amount of advertising in the columns of the Index-Tribune this week necessitated the condensing of the various news departments, hence the non-appearance of many personal notes.

The sequel to a romance, which has been of great interest for some months past, among their wide circle of friends, was the——

Bonner-Grannice Wedding—

As the innate modesty of the veteran and highly esteemed editor would not permit his assistant editor personally detailing the auspicious event in the columns of his paper, the interesting facts are taken from the Santa Rosa Press Democrat:

"Mrs. Grace I. Bonner, a beautiful and attractive woman of San Francisco, and a member of one of the oldest and respected families of the Mission, was married to Harry H. Granice, the well known editor of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, in this city at noon, Tuesday. The ceremony was performed in the parlors of the Hotel Overton, the Rev. Peter Colvin, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating.

"Mrs. Maud Birdsall, of San Francisco, an intimate friend of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Assemblyman Herbert Slater, a personal friend of the editor bridegroom, was best man.

"Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at a table resplendent with bright-colored dahlias and the health of the couple was heartily felicitated.

"On the afternoon train, Mr. and Mrs. Granice departed for San Francisco and Catalina Island, where they will spend a couple of weeks, and will then return to Sonoma to occupy the handsome Granice residence.

"Before their departure, Mr. and Mrs. Grannice received a number of congratulatory telegrams from relatives and friends.

"A host of friends and well-wishers in Sonoma, Santa Rosa and the entire county—for the bridegroom is the dean of the newspaper fraternity in the county, and has been editor of the Index-Tribune for thirty years - join in extending very hearty congratulations and an accompaniment of happiness.

"While the nuptials were marked with the utmost simplicity, it was none the less a very charming little wedding. When the newly-weds return to Sonoma, they will be accorded a welcome home reception by their host of friends there and in the Sonoma Valley."

There are many interesting details to be told of events in course of preparation, which will be discussed fully next week. Today we'll tell you briefly of an——

After noon Tea—

This neve-failing pleasure-giving function is to be given at the delightful home of Mrs. Dora Stofen, on Broadway street, Friday afternoon of next week, by the ladies of the Sonoma Auxiliary, P. P. I. E. Those whose good fortune it is to enjoy the hospitality of the energetic ladies next Friday afternoon have a treat in store for them, as Mrs. Elizabeth Hahman, of Santa Rosa, is to address the company. Mrs. Hahman, who is a prominent and well informed club woman, recently returned from an eastern trip, where she visited the leading feminist organizations, gleaning a fund of information, the dissemination of which will prove of advantage to club women of this county. The receipts from the afternoon's function are to be sent as an offering to the Mother's Monument Fund, and the ladies who have the affair in hand extend a cordial invitation to the gentlemen, as well as to the gentler sex, of town and valley to avail themselves of the pleasure of meeting and listening to Mrs. Hahman and enjoying a cup of tea. During the afternoon, tickets are to be sold for an event which takes place that same evening. This is to be a——

Don Theatre Benefit—

Whose managers, Messrs. Collins & Mohr, with their usual and commendable public spirit, are exerting themselves to put on some extra-beautiful films, in order to help swell the fund being raised for the Mother's Monument, which is to be unveiled at the coming Exposition in San Francisco, and which is appealing to the hearts of both old and young throughout our Golden State. The popular price of ten cents only will be charged for admission, and this insures the capacity of the popular play-house being taxed to its utmost. Bear in mind, readers of the Index-Tribune, that this benefit to help erect a lasting memorial to the courageous pioneer mothers of California is to take place Friday night of next week.

Posters are now claiming public attention for the——

Grand Masquerade Ball—

Which is to be given by the Woman's Improvement Club of Glen Ellen, at Chauvet Hall, Saturday night, October 17th. The energetic ladies of our progressive sister city, have acquired an enviable reputation for the successful affairs managed by them, and they send out the assurance to friends throughout the valley that the coming masquerade will prove no exception to the rule. Prizes will be given for the best sustained characters, lady and gentleman, and also for the most handsomely costumed lady and gentleman. Good dance music is to be provided, and the floor will be under the capable management of Messrs. L. Costa, T. Ceroghino and Harry Weise.

Society is in a flutter of pleasant anticipation at the announced——

Elks' Grand Ball—

Which has been dated for the night of Saturday, October 24th. We don't belive that any other event will be planned in the valley for that date as everyone who dances, and a host of those who don't, will want to be present when these genial Sonoma members of the great fraternity are hosts. An animated meeting was held Wednesday night by the gentlemen, all of whom are quite enthused and determined to make this the event of many months.

Following this, the next week, is to be held——

A Hallowe'en Festival—

To be given under the auspices of the ladies of St. Francis' Catholic Church. The intention of the ladies at this writing is to arrange a two days' fete—Friday and Saturday—with dancing and an entertaining program both evenings and a Saturday afternoon matinee for ladies and children, and gentlemen, too, if they wish to attend, and many will certainly do so. During the festival, there will be on sale numberless ornamental and practical articles. The dates, you are asked to bear in mind, will be October 30 and 31.

The Story—

Paid another welcome visit to the Sonoma Valley, yesterday, and left a very precious souvenir of his presence—a splendid native son—at the Sonoma Valley Sanitarium. Mr. and Mrs. M. Glaister are the proud and happy parents who are receiving the congratulations of their many friends. Mother and son are doing nicely.

M. E. Cummings Pays Visit

His host of friends had a most cordial greeting for Sonoma's popular ex-mayor, M. E. Cummings, during the brief visit paid by him to this city, Friday of last week. Mr. Cummings was accompanied by Henry D. Noonan, a prominent county seat business man. Genial M. E. reports the political pot as "simmering very placidly" at the present time, the greatsst activity prevailing amongst nominees for State offices. Mr. Cummings is doing some good boosting for his friend, Herbert W. Slater, Democratic nominee for State Senator, "but," as he remarked, "it is for a fact time wasted campaigning for Slater in this part of the district. Sonoma voters of town and valley, both Democrats and Republicans, recognize and appreciate the fact that Herbert Slater has been loyal to and worked for the interests of this county, and I hear only laudatory comments and assurances on every hand that old Sonoma will poll a handsome majority for Mr. Slater at the November election."

Dr. Hays Appointed Trustee

Dr. W. B. Hays has been honored by County School Superintendent Miss Florence Barnes by being named a member of the Board of High School Trustees, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Attorney Robt. A. Poppe. Wiser judgment could not have been shown in the selection of a successor to Mr. Poppe, who has given to the schools of this district most valuable and faithful service in the capacity of trustee. Dr. Hays, as a University graduate, is thoroughly in touch with modern and progressive educational methods and principles, and will prove a helpful factor in stimulating interest along these lines.

Bonded Warehouse Closed

From T. J. McGimsey, who for eighteen years has served the Government as storekeeper of the bonded warehouse, we learn that orders have been issued for the closing of that concern. Mr. McGimsey attributes the action to a desire on the part of the Government to a desire to curtail expenses, although, as a matter of fact the Sonoma warehouse was one of the best paying of the eight located in this district. One of the direct causes, perhaps, is due to the fact that of the several wine growers in this valley, but two have taken out bonds to distill this season. There is just a possibility, too, in the mind of ye editor that perchance the political wires have been given a slight twist.

☛ Elect Dr. Frank Phillips Coroner.

New Advertisements

We wish to call to the attention of readers of the Index-Tribune two advertisements which appear in another column. One is that of A. L. Hunt, water locator, of Oakland, and the other that of the Artisan Pacific Drilling Company, also of Oakland, and represented by Dave Burroughs, who is well and favorably known in this county. Within the past three months, six wells were located in the Wood Valley, on the Mission Farm Tract, at Buena Vista, by Mr. Hunt, and bored by Mr. Burroughs. These are flowing wells, one hundred and fifty feet in depth, and are on the properties of the Misses Faulkner, and Messrs. Alfs, Chas. Blair, Wm. Keefer, and B. F. Faulkner. Mr. Hunt bears the highest of recommendations to any one who wishes to acquire water by the boring of a well, and Mr. Burroughs guarantees to produce the water when located.

Last Dance of Season

Tonight, at El Verano Villa, the splendid resort of which Louis Lamotte is the popular proprietor, is to take place the closing dance of the season. No resort in the valley provides dance music of greater excellence than El Verano Villa, and the best of order is at all times maintained. There will be no admission charge and a general invitation to attend is extended the public.

New Millinery Store

Sonoma is to have a new millinery store, which is to be located in the Duhring building, next door to the Don Theatre. The storeroom is to be renovated and put in first-class shape for the many handsome styles of fall and winter millinery which will be shown therein within the next ten days.

GOOD NEWS FOR GRAPE GROWERS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22, 1914—Miss Anna J. Smith, Secretary Cloverdale Grape Protective Association:

"Things are taking on a favorable turn. Am confident that rate dry wines will be cut down one-half, if not eliminated, and the tax on sweet wines will take form of brandy tax.

"Grape growers should not sacrifice their crop, but protect themselves with contracts that will give them the benefits of a reduced tax.'

'THEODORE A. BELL."

The above telegram, says the Press Democrat, was received in Cloverdale Tuesday, and aroused considerable interest among the grape growers and wine makers of the section who have been using every endeavor to get their objections to the proposed exorbitant tax on wine heard by the authorities there. C. E. Humbert and others received messages of like cheer from Bell and renewed effort was put forth by the growers and winemakers to hurry other messages to the proper source.

Bell was sent to Washington in the interest of the wine men to point out the injustice of saddling the winemen and the grape growers with the tax as at first proposed, and the state at large was aroused in the effort to assist the big industry. All the district grape associations of this county and throughout the state, as well as thousands of individual grape growers, including several hundred in this county alone, joined in the protest.

Baer Bro .' Big Sale

Readers of the Index-Tribune, turn to our editorial page and read over the mammoth advestisement announcing the big "Wind-Up Sale" of Baer Brothers, which commences this (Saturday) morning, at 9:30. Read the ad, as it is a decidedly interesting composition, and bear the fact well in mind that at this mammoth and genuine bargain sale the first shoppers will be the first served.
